

THE OXFORD HANDBOOK OF CHILDREN'S RIGHTS LAW

Jonathan Todres and Shani M. King
Editors

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Preface – Martha Minow

Introduction – Jonathan Todres and Shani M. King

I. Historical and Theoretical Framework

1. Images toward the Emancipation of Children in Modern Western Culture – Gertrud Lenzer
2. The Evolution of the Children's Rights Movement – Jo Becker
3. Taking Children's Human Rights Seriously – Michael Freeman
4. The Interrelated and Interdependent Nature of Children's Rights – Savitri Goonesekere

II. Perspectives and Methods

5. A Child-Centered Approach to Children's Rights Law: Living Rights and Translations – Karl Hanson and Olga Nieuwenhuys
6. A Socioecological Model of Children's Rights – Tali Gal
7. Critical Race Theory and Children's Rights – Natsu Taylor Saito and Akilah J. Kinnison
8. Feminist Legal Theory and Children's Rights – Meredith Johnson Harbach
9. Intersectionality and Children's Rights – Jessica Dixon Weaver

III. Substantive Legal Areas

10. The Best Interests of the Child – Wouter Vandenhole and Gamze Erdem Türkelli
11. Citizenship and Rights of Children – David B. Thronson
12. The Child's Right to Family – Barbara Bennett Woodhouse
13. Child Participation – Jaap Doek
14. Juvenile Justice – Ton Liefwaard
15. Placing Children's Freedom from Violence at the Heart of the Policy Agenda – Marta Santos Pais
16. Continuing Dilemmas of International Adoption – Twila L. Perry
17. Economic and Labor Rights of Children – Manfred Liebel
18. The Health Rights of Children – Ursula Kilkelly
19. Revisiting the Three 'R's in Order to Realize Children's Education Rights: Relationships, Resources and Redress – Laura Lundy and Amy Brown
20. Poverty and Children's Rights – Aoife Nolan
21. Situating the Rights versus Culture Binary within the Context of Colonial History in Sub-Saharan Africa – Afua Twum-Danso Imoh
22. Climate Change and Children's Rights – Christine Bakker

V. Selected Individual and Institutional Actors

23. Taking Part, Joining In, and Being Heard? Ethnographic Explorations of Children's Participation – Perpetua Kirby and Rebecca Webb
24. National Human Rights Institutions for Children – Gerison Lansdown
25. Examining the UN Committee on the Rights of the Child through the Lens of Caste- and Descent-based Discrimination – Philip E. Veerman

VI. Selected Populations

26. Embracing Our LGBTQ Youth: A Child Rights Paradigm – Berta Esperanza Hernández-Truyol
27. Indigenous Children – Addie C. Rolnick
28. Children with Disabilities: Achievements, Prospects, and Challenges Ahead – Maya Sabatello and Mary Frances Layden
29. Independent Children – Julia Sloth-Nielsen and Katrien Klep
30. Trafficked Children – Mike Dottridge
31. Children in Armed Conflict – Mark Drumbl
32. Working toward Recognition of the Rights of Migrant and Refugee Children – Sarah Paoletti

VII. Conclusion

33. Human Rights Education: Educating about Children's Rights – R. Brian Howe and Katherine Covell
34. Children's Rights in the Twenty-First Century: Challenges and Opportunities – Jonathan Todres and Shani M. King